RWBY and Bleach Crossover Challenge

A/N: I just thought of this but a half hour ago. Again, I have enough on my plate as it is, so I'm posting it as a challenge. I only hope that whoever takes this idea has a decent understanding of both RWBY _and_ Bleach, and writes it well.

Now then, here's the challenge:

* * *

>Title: What A Pain

Summary: Getting transported to another world? He can deal with that. Getting hired to be a bodyguard? Sure, Weiss is crabby, but he can deal. Having to follow that girl to Beacon Academy? Not like he hasn't dealt with school before. But add in the antics of Weiss's new team and friends, along with dark forces coming to play...well, at least he has experience in both regards.

Pairing: Ichigo/Weiss (no harem)

Placement: Either a one man team meant for support of other teams (though mostly RWBY due to being Weiss's bodyguard, and maybe a little of JNPR once he gets to know them better, and perhaps Team CFVY at least once), or can be a fifth member of Team RWBY.

* * *

>AN: And that's pretty much it. Again, this idea came up only half an hour ago.

I hope this is left in good hands. One thing's for sure, I'll definitely read it.

Either review or PM me that you want to take the challenge and to ask any questions in regards to it. After thatâ€¦go to town on it.

LATERS!
